

MANY STATES NOW REQUIRE HARASSMENT TRAINING.

California, Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and other states now have harassment training mandates. Nationally, the EEOC has “advised” employers to train every other year to educate employees and prevent harassment from occurring. Don’t leave yourself exposed to claims--particularly in this down economy.

THINK OF TRAINING AS INSURANCE FOR YOUR COMPANY.

Plaintiffs’ lawyers have been suing employers for “failure to train” on harassment prevention, and courts have found employers liable—because they lacked training. This is a serious threat, particularly when employees have difficulty finding new jobs and are looking for claims against their employer. Taking this risk seriously means training your entire workforce on harassment prevention. A well trained workforce can stop harassment before it starts.

IN THIS ECONOMY, TRAINING IS EVEN MORE IMPORTANT.

Times are tough, and you are looking for ways to cut costs. But don’t cut training. Why? Studies show that when the economy goes down, employment claims go up. So it is even more important to protect yourself now by training your workforce. And our solution makes it easy, fast, and affordable.
